PUBLIC NOTICE No.19/2018

DATED:-.04./06/2018

Subject:- Pendency of Drawback claims due to non – validation of exporter's bank accounts by PFMS – regarding.

Attention of all exporters, CHAs, Customs Brokers, other stake holders and members of Trade is invited to the fact that large number of Drawback claims are pending in "Scroll in" queue in EDI systems at port of export (ICDs/ACC/LCSs) under the jurisdiction of Customs (Prev.) Lucknow.

2. In this regard, it is informed that bank account validation by PFMS is now mandatory for Drawback also. Unless the exporter's bank account is validated by PFMS, the shipping bills shall not be available for the final drawback Scroll. This is a step towards making Drawback payment completely electronic through PFMS like IGST refunds and ROSL, which shall begin very soon.

2. Further, a fortnightly campaign has been started from 31.05.2018 extending upto 14.06.2018 for resolving the problems faced by the exporters in this regard. All exporters are hereby requested to approach the following officers at port of export (ICDs/ACC/LCSs) under the jurisdiction of Customs (Prev.) Lucknow for correction in their bank account details and uploading the same on EDI systems for validation by PFMS.
